Young Artists Platform “The first step”

Continuing a practice which has become a tradition and an institution, the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra presents not one but three young artists, thereby offering them a significant platform from which they can be heard by the broader public. July’s concert features a par-excellence folk instrument, which, however, can be found lacking in nothing as regards lyricism and virtuosity compared to any symphony orchestra instrument: the bouzouki! Join us and support our young artists in the company of the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra!

G. PAISIELLO: Il Barbiere di Siviglia: Overture

A. VIVALDI: Concerto in C major, RV 425

T. MAYUZUMI: Concertino for xylophone and orchestra

G. KANCHELI: A Little daneliade

C. SAINT-SAENS, Havanaise, op. 83

G. ROSSINI: Il Barbiere di Siviglia: Overture

LEFKOSIA (NICOSIA)

19th CULTURAL FESTIVAL - UNIVERSITY OF CYPRUS

Performances programme:

SUN, 3 JULY

Under the Starlit Sky - Cyprus Guitar Trio

A musical journey from the age of Baroque to the 20th century through a selection of works by Boccherini, Vivaldi, Bizet, Guridi, Farkas, Pujol, Kaps, Dyens, Hindemith and Gragnani written or adapted for three guitars. The repertoire is presented by the established Cypriot guitar players Vasilios Avraam, Giorgos Christophi and Sokratis Leptos.

WED, 13 JULY

A Musical Journey through Cyprus and Greece - Athens Trio

The acclaimed "Athens Trio" presents a selection of pieces inspired by the musical heritage of Cyprus and Greece, which bring the flavour, sounds and scenes of the Mediterranean. The programme of the concert includes works by Solon Michaelidis, Giannis Konstantinidis, Konstantinos Kidoniatis, Giorgos Karvellos and Alkis Baltas.

FRI, 15 JULY

The Donkey Menios, the enderling

By Stella Michaelidou Music: Kostas Vomvolos

A fairy tale, full of tenderness and humour, about the adventures of a pampered donkey along his path to adulthood. A musical performance, which highlights in a humorous way overprotective behaviour of mothers who tend to hold their children "in captivity" and make them spoiled and vulnerable.

MON, 25 JULY

doc-fic-oh - Michalis Siganidis & Lambrakis Ensemble

An audiovisual narrative, which creates "musical synapses" between recorded audio material (document) and live music action (fiction). Improvisation – a prerequisite for the development of this musical thought – transforms "that same song" into a new material each time around.

Venue: The Archontiko of Axiothea (9 Axiotheas str., old Lefkosia)

Time: 20:30

Entrance: €15 | €7 Students/Discounted information | Reservations T. +357 22894531, ucy.ac.cy

TUE, 5 JULY

Tiempos Viejos Quintet

The beautiful courtyard in the old town is transformed into a dance floor for impressive choreographies and Argentinian passionate steps. The five-member band Tiempos Viejos use as soundtrack the most well-known composers such as Carlos Gardel, Francisco Canaro and Astor Piazzolla, inviting dance groups to perform the "dance of betrayed love and lure from Argentina".

Venue: At courtyard of the Bank of Cyprus Cultural Foundation (86-90, Faneromenis Str, CY-1515, T. +357 22128157, boccf.org)

Exhibition "Glyn Hughes 1931-2014"

Few artists have left such an indelible mark on Cyprus as Glyn Hughes (1931-2014). Though a Welshman, his continuous residence on the island for almost six decades (1956-2014) acted as a catalyst for the development of contemporary art in Cyprus and not just that. In the framework of the exhibition, a series of parallel events will be organised surrounding the life and work of Glyn Hughes.

Venue: Lefkosia Municipal Arts Centre (19, Palias Ilektrikis Str., T. +357 22797400)

Celebrating 50 Years of the Loukia & Michael Zampelas Collection

The Museum gallery presents a collective exhibition of paintings and sculptures under the title Motherhood. Cypriot artists, with the exception of the Greek painter George Gounaropoulos, depict the important symbol of motherhood, the relationship between mother and daughter and finally the figure of the Cypriot mother. A parallel exhibition entitled "Successive Compositions" exhibits works by artists based on a parent-child relationship. The exhibition attempts to demonstrate the way a parent-artist impacts their offspring and their ability to express themselves as individuals through their own visual language.

Venue: Loukia & Michael Zampelas Art Museum (27, Arch. Makarios III Avenue, T. +357 22 456 098, zampelasart.com.cy)

LEFKOSIA (NICOSIA) WALKS

Get to know the capital by walking

The Lefkosia Municipality established a series of thematic walking tours to present various aspects of the old city as well as the city outside the walls. Lefkosia, a city with 5,000 yearlong history, has much to offer. By walking, one gets a better feel for a place and its yearlong atmosphere, past and present, and a better understanding of its continual cultural development.

EVERY MONDAY

Pallouriotissa & Kaimakli: The Past Restored

Guided walking & bus tour.

The Walking Tour leads you to the most noteworthy sights in 'Pallouriotisa' and 'Kaimakli', two old villages at the outskirts of the Venetian Walls. As Lefkosia grew and expanded these villages gradually became historic districts of the city.

EVERY THURSDAY

Discover the old Nicosia and its walls

Guided walking tour.

Lefkosia, the only divided capital in the world, dates back to the Bronze Age. In antiquity and in early Christian times it was known as Ledra. It has been the capital of Cyprus since the Late Byzantine period (11th century). The Lusignans transformed it into a splendid city, with royal palaces and churches. The city centre, the old "Chora", surrounded by 16th century Venetian Walls, with museums, old churches and medieval buildings, maintains the leisurely atmosphere of yesteryear.

Language: English

Starting point: CTO Information Office in Laiki Geitonia, within the Venetian walls of old Nicosia city (11, Aristokyprou str., CY-1011)

Time: 10:00

Cost: Gratis. Offered by the Lefkosia (Nicosia) Municipality and organised in collaboration with the Cyprus Tourism Organisation and the Cyprus Tourist Guides Association.

For further information and bookings please contact T. +357 22674264. NO Walks held on public holidays.

Windcraft Music Fest 3

This August, Katydata village wakes up to the sounds of winds and embarks on new music explorations. The alto saxophones of Thodoris Rellos (Mode Plagal) and Zakari Frantz (of the Souljazz Orchestra) take us to Balkan and African routes, trumpets and clarinets twist through jazz, soul and classical music paths, drums mingle with the winds of a band, a zurna and a davul call for dancing... Bands and new collaborations from Cyprus, Greece and Canada with winds as their main ingredient will present their personal music interpretation, blending different traditions and creating new fusion sounds. The worlds of ethnic, jazz, soul, African, classical and traditional music will unite, just to prove once more that different cultures can co-exist. Free music workshops on various topics that combine learning with fun will invite children and adults to participate in the music creation, while other interactive activities will be taking place involving locals and foreign visitors. Traditional Cypriot winds will be given a special place in the festival: a zurna and a davul will mark the opening of
