SAT, 3 - MON, 5 JUNE (Public holiday)

PENTECOST - KATAKLYSMOS

“Kataklysmos” is a religious and popular feast celebrated only in Cyprus. “Kataklysmos”, which means flood, is found in the book of Genesis and in the Greek myth of Deukalion. In both cases it refers to the destruction by flood of almost all-living creatures in order to give birth to a new and moral generation. The ceremonies last for a few days and take place in all sea side towns. Celebrations include various games, swimming competitions, boat races, performances of folk dances, competitions of popular traditional songs known as “tsattista”, live music performances by famous Greek and Cypriot singers. The most popular custom of “Kataklysmos” is the throwing of water to one another (symbolises the purification of the body and soul) so be aware!

Maniera Cypria: 13th century icons in Cyprus

The exhibition highlights the production of iconography in Cyprus during the 13th century and its Eastern and Western influences. During that time, Constantinople was under Latin rule and after the issuing of the Bulla Cypria mandate, the Church of Cyprus was placed under the Pope of Rome. This period is of paramount importance for the Byzantine art of Cyprus. The multicultural environment created on the island during the 1st century of the Frankish rule, the presence of the Latin Church, the artists coming to the island from the West, as well as the refugees from Syria and Palestine are all factors which influenced Cypriot iconography. The art of the time is a continuation of the rich Byzantine tradition of the period after Isaac Komninos, combining western and eastern elements.

Venue: Byzantine Museum (Arch. Kyprianos Square, next to the Archbishop's Palace)

Opening Hours: 09:00 – 16:00

ONGOING till MON, 4 SEPTEMBER

Solomos Frangoulides: The Artist – The Art Critic

This exhibition presents Solomos Frangoulides, one of the pioneering painters of the first generation of Modern Cypriot Art, not only as a painter but also as a critic of art. The curators of the exhibition managed to gather this wealth of articles by Frangoulidis, published regularly in the newspaper Haravgi and New Age magazine, and to find in his writings a unique source of information on art in Cyprus at that time. The museographic approach and the selection of Frangoulides' works and texts help the visitor to reach the goals of this pioneering exhibition, while at the same time it contributes to the formation of new ways of understanding the work of Frangoulidis from the point of view of his time.

“Amathous of Cyprus, a city most ancient”

Amathous is one of the most interesting city-kingdoms of ancient Cyprus. On the occasion of 40 years of excavations (1975–2015) of the French Archaeological Mission of Amathous, the Department of Antiquities in collaboration with the French School at Athens, is organizing this exhibition that covers a large chronological period, from prehistory to the first centuries of the Christian period. The exhibits are presented in four different thematic entities, which narrate the history of the city and the region of Amathous by providing information on public and private life, rituals, burial customs and commercial or cultural exchanges. The exhibition includes a brief reference to legends and traditions and the fact that the inhabitants of Lemesos, at least from the medieval period until today, refer to Amathous as “Palia Lemesos”, thus keeping alive the memory of the important city of ancient Cyprus, which was in fact the predecessor of the modern city of Limassol. Free guided tour in English on Saturday 10th of June, at 10:00.
