LEFKOSIA (NICOSIA)

FRI, 1 JUNE

Musical Titans

In the Nicosia concert, the CySO will perform Syrian composer Kareem Roustom's work «Dabke» (stamping of the feet), a folk-dance native to the Levant and widely performed at weddings and other joyous occasions. Mozart's Symphony no. 39 may well be the least popular of the composer's three last symphonies, but it's no less a masterwork than the other two. Granted, it doesn't have the tragic romanticism of the 40th or the magnificent heroics of the 41st (the Jupiter), with its hallmarks however no less musical but simply more difficult to pinpoint; a work unjustifiably underrated... As for Beethoven's 5th, it's probably the most well-known piece of western music in the world. The famous four opening notes are so ingrained in people's minds that they've become an icon of classical music! And no wonder - its catchy rhythm is used as the basis.

Venue: Pallas Theatre (Rigainis & Arsinois corner, Pafos Gate Old Lefkosia, T. +357 22410181)

Filep Motwary: In Parallel _ 2 out of 5

During his eight-year tenure as a self-taught photographer and portraitist, Filep Motwary has captured the changing face of Fashion and Beauty as well as created his own visual language and approach communicating both to the outside. Motwary was initially trained as a fashion designer and worked for prestigious houses such as Dior and Galliano, Chloe as well as through his own brand until 2009. This dual identity led him to conceive and curate last year's exhibition 'Haute-a-Porter' at the Modemuseum Hasselt and the publication of its best-selling accompanying book. There he investigated the fine line that separates or ultimately unifies Couture and Pret-a-Porter. In this new project under the aegis of Loukia & Michael Zampelas Art Museum, an association of excellence in Arts and creative expression, Motwary focuses on two of the many aspects concluding his body of work: a selection of his most favourite photographs along with his journalistic ventures for Dapper Dan magazine.

CYPRUS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Discover the Symphony (Alampra)

Within the CySO "Neighbourhood Concerts" last February, the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra renews its invitation to "Discover the symphony". A journey of 130 years: from the classical composers Joseph Haydn (the father of the symphony) and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart at the end of the 18thc. to the «romantics» Ludwig van Beethoven and Franz Schubert in the 19thc. up to the Russian Sergei Prokofiev at the beginning of the 20thc. We begin by showcasing the «standard classical» movements of a Symphony: fast, slow Minuet and Finale as well as their musical characteristics. Then, through the example of Prokofiev's «Classical» symphony we will show how these movements combine to form a unified work. For further Information: T. +357 22463144, cyso.org.cy

ONGOING till SUN, 17 JUNE"MEDITATIONS"

This exhibition, given the role of 'Magnum Photos' in the art of photography, and the recording of important moments in history, the society and nature, aims at highlighting the relationship between specific photographers of this organisation and ancient monuments throughout Europe, including Cyprus. The unique insight into the sphere of archaeological heritage, as this is presented in these works of art, creates another context for these monuments, across time and space, as they become eternal within a different perspective. As the objective of the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018 is to reinforce the relationship between society and our culture, this exhibition constitutes the best way to highlight this special kind of art, but also our culture. The photographers are Josef Koudelka, George Rodger, Nikos Economopoulos, David Seymour, Ferinando Scianna, Herbert List, Elliot Erwitt and Micha Bar Am. Their photographs are accompanied by quotes taken from poems, composed by distinguished poets.

Get to know the capital by walking

The Lefkosia Municipality established a series of thematic walking tours to present various aspects of the old city as well as the city outside the walls. Lefkosia, a city with 5,000 yearlong history, has much to offer. By walking, one gets a better feel for a place and its yearlong atmosphere, past and present, and a better understanding of its continual cultural development.

EVERY MONDAY

Pallouriotissa & Kaimakli: The Past Restored

Guided walking & bus tour.

The Walking Tour leads you to the most noteworthy sights in 'Pallouriotisa' and 'Kaimakli', two old villages at the outskirts of the Venetian Walls. As Lefkosia grew and expanded these villages gradually became historic districts of the city.

EVERY THURSDAY

Discover the old Nicosia and its walls

Guided walking tour.

Lefkosia, the only divided capital in the world, dates back to the Bronze Age. In antiquity and in early Christian times it was known as Ledra. It has been the capital of Cyprus since the Late Byzantine period (11th century). The Lusignans transformed it into a splendid city, with royal palaces and churches. The city centre, the old "Chora", surrounded by 16th century Venetian Walls, with museums, old churches and medieval buildings, maintains the leisurely atmosphere of yesteryear.

Following the completion of the painting Untitled, 2012 and fascinated by the peculiar physiology of the represented headless figure the artist decided to keep it for himself. A few years later however, due to external pressure he came to the conclusion that he must part with it. Before the painting left his studio he decided to make a copy and shortly thereafter a second copy, turning this exercise of multiplication into a diptych. Six years later, on the occasion of the exhibition at The Island Club, Georgiou revisits this series of reiterations with a new drawing inviting the potential for a new narrative to arise.

Alkinoos Ioannides in Cyprus

Alkinoos to the stage alone, without his usual entourage, toying with his songs. He is receptive to the immense opportunities offered by the coexistence with his audience, capturing the spirit of the moment. In his concerts, staged for both listening and participating, the protagonists, as always, are the songs themselves. His songs narrate a story, a thought, an event, miraculously bridging the gap between the artist and his audience. They make the moment look like it will last forever, soothing the human loneliness and conveying a feeling of temporary immortality.

21ST CYPRUS CONTEMPORARY DANCE FESTIVAL

Italy

175 years have passed, since the première of "Giselle" by Balletto di Roma, a masterpiece of romantic classical ballet created for the Parisian debut of Italian ballerina Carlotta Grisi. Now, for the first time, Giselle involves an international team of artists and associates, with different artistic identities and original creative approaches, coordinated by Peggy Olislaegers, former artistic director of the Dutch Dance Festival, dramaturg for many companies like Rambert and artists as such as Alessandro Sciarroni. Richard Van Kruysdijk and Andreas Berger's profound rearrangement of the music of Adolphe Adam underlies both acts of the ballet, enabling the dancers to generate new rhythmic and gestural evocations, which let each spectator create his or her own story.

"MEDITATIONS"

This exhibition, given the role of 'Magnum Photos' in the art of photography, and the recording of important moments in history, the society and nature, aims at highlighting the relationship between specific photographers of this organisation and ancient monuments throughout Europe, including Cyprus. The unique insight into the sphere of archaeological heritage, as this is presented in these works of art, creates another context for these monuments, across time and space, as they become eternal within a different perspective. As the objective of the European Year of Cultural Heritage 2018 is to reinforce the relationship between society and our culture, this exhibition constitutes the best way to highlight this special kind of art, but also our culture. The photographers are Josef Koudelka, George Rodger, Nikos Economopoulos, David Seymour, Ferinando Scianna, Herbert List, Elliot Erwitt and Micha Bar Am. Their photographs are accompanied by quotes taken from poems, composed by distinguished poets.

"Mozart and the 20th Century"

Chamber Music Concert with musicians of the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra

What can one expect when the Artistic Director and Chief Conductor of the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra teams up with the orchestra's Concertmaster to give us an evening of chamber music? Well; nothing but excellence of course, and that's exactly what Jens Georg Bachman at the piano and Wolfgang Schroeder on the violin are promising us in this concert, which brings together not only the two musicians themselves, but also two of the best-known composers of their respective timelines: from the second half of the 18th century and Austria, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and, from the second half of the 20th and Estonia, Arvo Pärt. With music then bridging boundaries and time periods, we are all brothers or, as Pärt himself puts it.... "Fratres"!

2018 June*WED, 13 JUNE*Lipertis' songs

Larkos Larkos, from 2009 until today, has put music on to almost half of his dialectical poetry by D. Lipertis (64 melodic poems). These are complete (non-semantic) melodies of poems from the four volumes of the Greek-Cypriot poet D. Lipeptis' 'Tzipriotika traouthkia' ('The Cypriot Songs'), which highlight the most important spectrum of his idiomatic creation, with emphasis on his social, love and teaching poetry. The work is stylistically orchestrated around the 1900s, a period created by D. Lipertis, and the musical genres of that period are depicted in poetry and melodication (canada, tango, rebetiko, smyrnaikos etc.) through the composer's personal stance. Musicians performing are: Larkos Larkou (voice, lute, guitar, tzouras, mandola), Atys Larkou (violin, voice), Panayiotis Tsappis (Ney, guitar, voice), Marianna Moumtzi (Norman, percussion).
