Painting Exhibition of Sousan Itayim

Sousan Itayim is originally from Iran. Sousan's art has developed mainly through personal effort and years of experimentation in search of the medium and technique which would best express her inner feelings and thoughts. In this collection, Sousan uses collage, acrylic paint, mixed media, stamps and stencils. She combines Kilim designs, Persian calligraphy, Islamic and oriental motifs, vivid colors and texture to produce vibrant paintings that are full of movement, rhythm and harmony. The bits of calligraphy and text used in the paintings come from Persian poetry and are used purely as design elements and not as text.

King Lear

Broadcast from London's West End, see Ian McKellen's 'extraordinarily moving portrayal' (Independent) of King Lear in cinemas. Chichester Festival Theatre's production received five-star reviews for its sell-out run, and transfers to the West End for a limited season. Considered by many to be the greatest tragedy ever written, King Lear sees two ageing fathers – one a King, one his courtier – reject the children who truly love them. Their blindness unleashes a tornado of pitiless ambition and treachery, as family and state are plunged into a violent power struggle with bitter ends.

GERMASOGEIA WALKS

WED, 10 & 24 OCT

Germasogeia – A Village Blessed by Water

This tour aims to take visitors to the peaceful, picturesque village of Germasogeia, 15 minutes away from the beach, to stroll through its narrow streets, see its special architecture, visit its churches, and feel the village life. Water has always been the most important element in the development of Germasogeia. It is bounded by the sea in the south and on its north it has as a physical boundary, the water dam of Germasogeia fed by the river Amathos coming from the mountains of Troodos. The tour also includes a visit to the water dam of Germasogeia.

WED, 17 OCT & 31 OCT

Discover the Natural Environment of Germasogeia

This tour aims to discover the nature of Germasogeia. The idea is to walk away from the village to the serene surroundings of the area and enjoy a relaxing stroll wandering in the hills of Germasogeia. The participants of the tour will enjoy a ride in the old Bedford bus which drives partly through an earthen road. They will walk (there is some uphill walking) for more than half an hour along the nature trail of the area of Phinicia laid out by the Forestry Department and enjoy the magnificent view of the water dam and river. In the winter, colourful flowers and shrubs cover the valley. The herbs and wild flowers and tree blossoms give a variety of colours and scents.

Language: English

Starting point: CTO Tourist Information Office- Germasogeia (22, Georgiou A' Street, Eastern entrance of Dasoudi Beach Area, CY 4047, T. +357 25323211).

Time : 10:00-13:00

Cost. Gratis. Offered free of charge by the Municipality of Germasogeia in collaboration with the Cyprus Tourism Organization and the Cyprus Tourist Guides Association.
