Asking the hotel industry about the Cyprus Breakfast programme

There is a special interest in the products of the Cyprus Breakfast corner both by our local guests and our guests from abroad. We have received positive comments about the Cyprus Breakfast corner from many people and we believe that this enhances the image of the hotel. We support our traditions and customs through the Cyprus Breakfast and the Cypriot delights. It is very important for a hotel to promote the 'Cypriot Identity' through the local products of Cyprus in order the tourists to be familiar with the Cypriot cuisine and culture. These actions can help us to preserve our heritage and support our local producers. We hope that more actions will be developed to enhance the image of Cyprus and to make the whole world aware of its beauty.

Stephanie Lambouri - Marketing & Public Relations Manager
Ajax Hotel

We are always positive to introduce our guests with local dishes and delicacies. Even before we enter the "Cyprus Breakfast" programme we always had local choices on our buffets. Our guests leave positive comments and most of them are eager to try our local products. Many of them are asking for local dishes options in order to have a taste of Cyprus. We will continue that way as it is something our customers need and we believe that it is important to promote our culture and our cuisine for a sustainable future.
