"Antigone" by Sophocles

The first collaboration between the National Theatre of Greece, the National Theatre of Northern Greece and the Cyprus Theatre Organisation directed by Stathis Livathinos. Antigone was probably first performed at the Great Dionysia festival of 441 BCE, and was written by Sophocles as a response to the exile of Themistocles, the victor of the Battle of Salamis. In Antigone, one of the finest works of ancient Greek drama, the conflict between the moral law and the law of the state reaches its peak, with the two protagonists unable to escape the tragic fate that has been decreed for them. PAFOS

FRI, 2 – SUN, 4 SEPT

18th Pafos Aphrodite Festival Don Giovanni by W.A. Mozart

One of the greatest works of the operatic repertoire and one of the leading lyric masterpieces of all times, the outstanding Don Giovanni by W.A. Mozart is to be presented in co-production with Parma Opera Organization C.E.F.A.C. with the participation of the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra. Mozart's Don Giovanni is an opera in two acts and the libretto was written by Lorenzo Da Ponte. It premiered at the Estates Theatre in Prague on 29 October 1787. Da Ponte's libretto was considered, like many of its time, as drama giocoso, a term that denotes a combination of serious and comic action. In Don Giovanni, Mozart's music renders all aspects of a man who goes against god and takes his fate in his own hands. In this imposing work, which musically elevates the curtain of Romanticism with the most impressive way, nothing is what it seems, since the ambiguity permeates the poetic text but also the music. The intense dramatic music which accompanies the appearance of the otherworldly element and the extensive arias of the nobles come into direct dialogue with the lighthearted, everyday reverberation of the comic characters. Greek and English subtitles. For further information: T. +357 26822218, pafc.com.cy
