25 YEARS OF CHAMBER MUSIC AT ITS FINEST A LASTING LEGACY

Celebrating its 25th anniversary, the International Pharos Chamber Music Festival has firmly established a presence of formidable standing that extends far beyond Cyprus. Twenty-five years on, with hundreds of concerts and the participation of many of the most renowned artists of our time, the Festival has cultivated a clear artistic identity, shaped by consistency of vision and a steadfast commitment to chamber music at the highest level. The Festival brings together a rich spectrum of chamber music, moving naturally between the baroque and the present day, and placing some of the most celebrated masterpieces of the repertoire alongside lesser-known works. Each concert presents a distinct programme, drawing the audience into a continuous and immersive musical experience unlike any other.

From 29 May until 4 June, the 25th International Pharos Chamber Music Festival will offer six chamber concerts at the Royal Manor House in Kouklia, performed by 20 of today's leading international virtuosos, and will culminate with a spectacular orchestral concert on 6 June at the Pharos Arts Foundation's open-air venue, The Olive Grove, featuring two of the Festival's soloists alongside the Cyprus Symphony Orchestra and the Cyprus Youth Symphony Orchestra in a side-by-side performance!

All concerts start at 8:30pm

The Royal Manor House, Kouklia is a remarkable testament to Frankish architecture and a UNESCO World Heritage site. Kouklia (Palaipaphos) was one of the most celebrated pilgrimage centres of the ancient Greek world and it was the site of a famous sanctuary of Aphrodite, the oldest remains of which date back to the 12th century BC.

The Olive Grove, Delikipos is set in an ancient grove with 800-year-old olive trees and pine forest next to a Natura 2000 EU protected area, offering a spectacular setting for summer concerts. With its water features, zen landscaping, Mediterranean naturalism and atmospheric lighting, the venue is easily accessible from all major towns.
